Translation of Hu Feng Articles

The study of the internal conflict in Communist China centering on the Hu Feng case is seriously hampered by the unavailability in translation of many of the important documents bearing on it. The items in the following list, which seems a minimum compatible with the importance of the material, are apparently not so available in Washington, and full textual translation of them would greatly benefit not only this Division but the entire intelligence effort on China.

1. Hu Feng's article of self-criticism carried by PEOPLE'S DAILY 13 May 1955.
2. The first and second of the three sets of evidence published in PEOPLE'S DAILY 13 and 16 May 1955 purportedly documenting the case against Hu Feng.
3. Articles by the following CPR literary leaders carried in PEOPLE'S DAILY:
 - a. Chou Yang, 10 December 1954

 - c. Mao Tun, 9 February 1955
 - d. Tseu Yu, 21 February 1955
 - e. Kuo Mo-jo, 1 April 1955
 - f. Any articles on the Hu Feng case by other prominent figures such as Lu Ting-i, Lin Feng.
